

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved our time at home, as we are not constantly answering calls or being interrupted by telemarketers. Indiana's law has been very effective. I used to receive calls all the time or would see "out of area" all day long on my caller id. the number of calls and "out of area" calls have substantially decreased.